

The Railroad to Hell

However, let me introduce the real man-behind-the-scenes who turns this smelly, ad hoc, lurching locomotive into a truly mean machine: David Marriott, Chief Engineer and Architect of these spinning wheels

Hi, I'm Paul the PI, Honourary Engineer of The Midnight Express to Hell. Since I'm the one who coined the expression "Railroad job from Hell", I'll be cohosting this special report on Smoke and Mirrors

Thanks Paul for the intro. Tonight we will cross Death Valley and learn about Spin. Well, The Midnight Express to Hell has a lot of ground to cover before dawn, so let's get cracking.
