Now let me get this straight: it seems that on one hand, Doug Preston is immersed in his fiction writing in the different themes and topics listed on the left. On the other hand, Mignini goes to work everyday and accepts the cases which are assigned to him, like the ones on the right, where there isn't much room for Satanism or delirium Yet Preston (and in turn the FOA admirers whom he inspires) seems to accuse Mignini of such obsession and delirium.

How many American talk-show hosts have accepted this as fodder for their viewers?

Just making this slide has caused me to pause and take in the pro-Amanda PR machine, which in both its highly coordinated forms as well as its loose-coalition-of-common-interest forms is strikingly scary.

On the other hand, Mignini goes to work everyday and accepts the cases which are assigned to him, like the ones on the right, where there isn't much room for Satanism or delirium except in a small minority of cases (35%). WHAT IS CLEAR IS THAT PRESTON AND HIS NOVELS ARE THE SPAWN OF SATAN. Clearly, Preston is part and parcel of the Satanic conspiracy behind the Kercher murder.

Just making this slide has given me pause. This PROVES the Satanic connection in the Knox case stretches all the way across the Atlantic. Because it should be obvious by now: Preston and his novels are Satanicly inspired.
