None of above. It happened in Italy last September and the journalist's name is Frank Starzo. He lives in Perugia.

(CBS) - A independent journalist of very modest means is at home in his apartment. Five police officers enter. No warrants, no badges shown. The journalist is handcuffed then beaten. He's brought before a court where police ask that the journalist be declared insane because of his coverage of a high-profile case.

Where did this take place?

- A. Libya
- B. Syria
- C. China
- D. Mubarak's Egypt?
